OLD BUSINESS

Art for the Government Center – continued discussion: Local Cary artist, Kathy Elfring donated a landscape of Trout Valley. Kathy described her background and her work. Pictures were taken for a press release.

The Picasso will be placed in the second floor vestibule by the staircase.

Robin Pendergrast donated aerial collage that will hang over front desk of Administration Building. Robin will submit ideas next month for fundraiser with limited prints of aerial shots.

Susan presented permanent collection catalog inventory and pictorial to committee. This will also be given to all Board Members.

There will be a reception featuring collection on May 16. Invitations will be sent to Board Members, municipal leaders, MCEDC and Tourism Bureau along with the artists.

Chairman Koehler will donate the Raue Center painting and the Committee will purchase the Dole Mansion painting to add to the collection. Discussion ensued about donations. Susan will make donation determinations as to what fits our mission.

History of Indian pictures donated by Chairman Koehler was presented to the Committee and will be given to Board Members.

March is Youth Arts Month. Huntley High School art is currently handing in the Employee entrance hallway. Susan is working with Joe Williams, Asst. Regional Superintendent to bring rotating high schools artwork from around the county to display in the administration building.

A short survey will go out to employees and will be available after each event to determine feedback on events.
