Old Business

1) The VAC office still has some 300 Club raffle ticket booklets for sale and you can sign them out for to sell. The beginning account for the 300 Club was $1190.00 at the start of October and there was no withdrawals and $220.00 from ticket sales were deposited and the ending balance is $1410.00. The VAC office has 6 books availiable and a couple more books in circulation. The first 300 Club Raffle Ticket Drawing is to occur at the January General Meeting and the drawn tickets go back into the drum for possible future wins.

2) The Drop-In Center in McHenry is hosting a Veterans Voice Project. This project is a 10 week course for veterans to compose stories about their experiences in the military and begins on Thursday. November 17th at 7 PM.

New Business

1) The VAC Mobile Office Project is nearing completion and should be rolling by January of 2012. A Honda 3800 watt generator will be mounted on a rack on the back of the vehicle with a weather-resistant cover and the vehicle is now being detailed with VAC lettering and stickers.The final costs for the detailing will use only $550.00 of the $2000.00 authorizated for use for the project from the old bus fund.

2) The commission ordered some pizzas for the delegation at tonight's meetings and the VAC wishes to thank the "worker bees" and the delegation for the last yerar.

The meeting of the VAC Inc. adjourned at 1938
