- Are you looking for a way to make better hiring decisions?
- Would it be helpful to know if the candidates that you are considering have the skills and 'trainability' to be successful in your organization?

Learn how the National Career Readiness Certificate (NCRC) can help fill the talent mismatch gap.

Learn how:

- Employers are saving time in the hiring process, reducing turnover rates, saving money and getting the right people into the right jobs.
- NCRC benefits high school students.
- NCRC benefits Dislocated Workers and Employers.
- Communities and employers are using the NCRC to help meet their needs.

The National Career Readiness Certificate measures problem solving and critical thinking skills in the context of:

- Reading for Information - applying information from workplace documents to solve problems.
- Applied Mathematics - applying reasoning to work-related problems; setting up and performing calculations.
- Locating Information –synthesizing, applying, comparing information in multiple, related graphics.
