

The 22nd Judicial Circuit Family Violence Coordinating Council in partnership with the Child Advocacy Center of McHenry County, Inc., and McHenry County College will present:

CHILD ABUSE:

Developing a Coordinated Multi-Disciplinary Community Approach

Thursday, October 28, 2010 • 8:30 a.m. - 4 p.m.

MCC Conference Center • Registration begins at 8 a.m.

Symposium Feature:

The National Child Protection Training Center will present a day-long symposium featuring Victor Veith, the Executive Director of this state-of-the-art training complex located on the campus of Winona State University. Mr. Veith is a former prosecutor and nationally recognized child abuse expert who has provided instruction to thousands of professionals across the country. Author of Unto the Third Generation, Mr. Veith has written a bold initiative that outlines the necessary steps we must all take to eliminate child abuse in America in three generations. Also presenting will be Amy Russell. A staff attorney and nationally certified counselor, Ms. Russell has extensive experience in forensic interviewing and working with victims of violence and trauma, including homicide victims.

The symposium will be of particular interest to those persons who find themselves responding to the needs of child abuse victims, their families and to the perpetrators of this abuse such as:

- Judges
- Counselors
- Prosecuting Attorneys
- Victim Advocates
- Health Care Providers
- Educators
- Social Workers
- Clergy
- Law Enforcement
- Probation Officers
- Government Officials
- Paramedics and EMTs

Class/Registration Information:

- CEUs, MCLEs and CPDUs are available for an additional fee of $10, payable the day of the event.
- Continental breakfast, lunch and snacks will be provided and have been partially funded by the VOICE Sexual Assault Program.

Symposium ID: NTL S99 001

Fee: $20

This program is made possible in part by the financial support provided by the Child Advocacy Center of McHenry County, Inc., VOICE Sexual Assault Program and McHenry County Mental Health Board Family CARE.

To register contact the Shah Center at (815) 455-8593 and reference the ID number.

For general information, please contact Bev Thomas, Local Coordinator 22nd Judicial Circuit Family Violence Coordinating Council at (815) 479-7792 or email bthomas@mchenry.edu