Chris Gleason has worked in the Addiction field since 1995, working in DUI, outpatient, and inpatient mental health and substance abuse programs. He has also presented on many different topics both locally and nationally including Co-Occurring Treatment for Adolescents and Opiate/Heroin Addiction in both the Adult and Adolescent population.

Chris is the Director of Rosecrance McHenry County which provides outpatient counseling for both substance abuse and mental health. Chris is also an adjunct professor at Aurora University and is the Chairperson for the McHenry County Substance Abuse Coalition.

Kelly J. Epperson is the Vice President and General Counsel at Rosecrance Health Network. As General Counsel for Rosecrance, Epperson handles privacy matters on a daily basis and routinely analyzes the unique situations that face behavioral health providers.

She focuses much of her practice on ensuring compliance with the three confidentiality laws that apply to behavioral health providers: HIPAA, 42 CFR Part 2, and the Illinois Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities Confidentiality Act. Her job requires an intricate knowledge of all three confidentiality laws as unique and unprecedented situations arise.

Prior to law school, Kelly received a bachelor's degree in East Asian Studies, Economics, and History from the University of Wisconsin at Madison.
