(Ord. O-201505-12-020, § VII, passed 5-5-2015)

§ 5.12.090 LICENSEE QUALIFICATIONS.

Raffle and poker run licenses shall be issued only to bona fide charitable, educational, fraternal, labor, business, religious and fraternal, labor, business, religious and veterans organizations that operate without profit to their members and which have been in existence continuously for a period of five (5) years or more immediately before making application for a license and which have had during that entire five (5) year period a bona fide membership engaged in carrying out their objects, or to a non-profit fundraising organization that the Commissioner determines is organized for the sole purpose of providing financial assistance to an identified individual or group of individuals suffering extreme financial hardship as a result of an illness, disability, accident or disaster. The Commissioner may waive the 5-year requirement under this subsection for a bona fide religious, charitable, labor, business, fraternal, educational, or veterans' organization that applies for a license to conduct a poker run if the organization is a local organization that is affiliated with and chartered by a national or State organization that meets the 5-year requirement. The following are ineligible for any raffle or poker run license: The following are ineligible for any license under this Ordinance:

A. Any person whose felony conviction will impair the person's ability to engage in the licensed position; EXCEPT the Commissioner shall not require applicants to report the following information and shall not consider the following criminal history records in connection with an application for a license:

1. Juvenile adjudications of delinquent minors as defined in Section 5-105 of the Juvenile Court Act of 1987, subject to the restrictions set forth in Section 5-130 of the Juvenile Court Act of 1987.
2. Law enforcement records, court records, and conviction records of an individual who was 17 years old at the time of the offense and before January 1, 2014, unless the nature of the offense required the individual to be tried as an adult.
3. Records of arrest not followed by a conviction.
4. Convictions overturned by a higher court.
5. Convictions or arrest that have been sealed or expunged.

The Commissioner, upon a finding that an applicant for a license was convicted of a felony shall consider any evidence of rehabilitation and mitigating factors contained in the applicant's record, including any of the following factors and evidence, to determine if the conviction will impair the ability of the applicant to engage in the position for which a license is sought:

1. the lack of direct relation of the offense for which the applicant was previously convicted to the duties, functions and responsibilities of the position for which a license is sought;

Attachment: Raffle and Poker Run Ordinance 3-19-19 (7470 : 18 - Amending Raffle and Poker Run Ordinance - March 2019)

2. whether 5 years since a felony conviction or 3 years since release from confinement for the conviction, whichever is later, have passed without a subsequent conviction;

3. if the applicant was previously licensed or employed in this State or other states or jurisdictions, then the lack of prior misconduct arising from or related to the licensed position or position of employment;

4. the age of the person at the time of the criminal offense;

5. successful completion of sentence and, for applicants serving a term of parole or probation, a progress report provided by the applicant's probation or parole officer that documents the applicant's compliance with conditions of supervision;

6. evidence of the applicant's present fitness and professional character;

7. evidence of rehabilitation or rehabilitative effort during or after incarceration, or during or after a term of supervision, including, but not limited to, a certificate of good conduct under Section 5-5.5-10 of the Unified Code of Corrections; and

8. any other mitigating factors that contribute to the person's potential and current ability to perform the duties and responsibilities of the position for which a license or employment is sought.

B. Any person who is or has been a professional gambler or gambling promoter;

C. Any person who is not of good moral character;

D. Any firm or corporation in which a person defined in subsection A., B. or C. supra has a proprietary, equitable or credit interest, or in which such a person is active or employed;

E. Any organization in which a person defined in subsection A., B. or C. supra is an officer, director, or employee, whether compensated or not;

F. Any organization in which a person defined in subsection A., B. or C. supra is to participate in the management or operation of a raffle as defined in this ordinance.

(Ord. O-201505-12-020, § IX, passed 5-5-2015)

§ 5.12.100 LICENSE ISSUANCE.

A. The Commissioner or his/her designee shall review and accept or reject all raffle or poker run licenses applications within 30 days from the date of application. If an application is accepted, the Commissioner shall forthwith issue a raffle or poker run license to the applicant. A raffle or poker run license shall be valid for a period of thirty (30) days from and after its issuance unless the Commissioner has specifically authorized a license for a longer period of time, but not for more than ninety (90) days.

B. A raffle license shall show the following:

- 1. The area or areas in which raffle chances may be sold or issued;
- 2. The period of time during which raffle chances may be sold or issued;
- 3. The maximum price which may be charged for each raffle chance issued or sold;
- 4. The date, time and location on or at which winning chances will be determined.

C. Said license shall be prominently displayed at the time and location of the determination of the winning chances.

D. A license shall be valid for one (1) raffle only; however, multiple licenses may be issued for multiple raffles to a licensee.

E. The Commissioner may, in his discretion, remit any raffle or poker run application for review before the Law & Government/Liquor Committee to make findings on any factual issue in an application and award a raffle or poker run license.

(Ord. O-201505-12-020, § IX, passed 5-5-2015)

§ 5.12.110 CONDUCT OF RAFFLES AND POKER RUNS.

The operation and conduct of raffles and poker runs are subject to the following restrictions:

A. The entire net proceeds of any raffle or poker run must be exclusively devoted to the lawful purpose of the organization permitted to conduct that game;

B. No person except a bona fide member of the sponsoring organization may participate in the management or operation of the raffle or poker run;

C. No person may receive any remuneration or profit for participating in the management or operation of the raffle or poker run;

D. A licensee may rent a premise on which to determine the winning chance or chances in a raffle only from an organization which is also licensed under this Ordinance. A premises where a poker run is held is not required to obtain a license if the name and location of the premises is listed as a predetermined location on the license issued for the poker run and the premises does not charge for use of the premises;

E. Any McHenry County Raffle License issued pursuant to this Ordinance permits raffle chances to be sold, offered for sale, conveyed, issued, or otherwise transferred for value only within those areas which are both within the borders of the County of McHenry and outside the borders of any municipality, and winning chances may be determined only at those locations specified on the license. Any organization selling, conveying, issuing, or otherwise transferring for value raffle tickets within the borders of McHenry County, but outside the borders of any municipality, must first obtain a McHenry County Raffle license;

F. A playing card or equivalent item may be drawn only within the area specified on the poker run license and winning hands or scores may be determined only at those, locations specified on said license;

G. Each raffle chance shall have printed thereon the following:

- 1. The cost of said chance;
- 2. The aggregate retail value of all prizes to be awarded in said raffle;
- 3. The maximum number of raffle chances to be issued;
- 4. The date(s), time(s), and location(s) on or at which winning chances will be determined.

H. However, when raffle chances are sold, conveyed, issued, or otherwise transferred only at the time and location at which winning chances will be determined and only to persons then in attendance, the face of the raffle chance need not contain such information;

I. No real property, including land and any buildings thereon, may be the prize in a raffle unless the organization holding the raffle license owns fee simple title as to the entire subject real property;

J. A person under the age of eighteen (18) years may participate in the conducting of raffles or chances or poker runs only with the permission of a parent or guardian. A person under the age of eighteen (18) years may be within the area where winning chances in a raffle or winning hands or scores in a poker run are being determined only when accompanied by his parent or guardian.

K. If a lessor rents premises where a winning chance on a raffle or a winning hand or score in a poker run is determined, the lessor shall not be criminally liable if the person who uses the premises for the determining of winning chances does not hold a license issued by the County.

Attachment: Raffle and Poker Run Ordinance 3-19-19 (7470 : 18 - Amending Raffle and Poker Run Ordinance - March 2019)

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any person may make a gift of a chance to any person of any age.
(Ord. O-201505-12-020, § X, passed 5-5-2015)

§ 5.12.120 RAFFLES MANAGER—BONDS.

A. All operation of and the conduct of raffles and poker runs shall be under the supervision of a single raffle or poker run manager designated by the organization.

B. The manager shall give a fidelity bond, equal in amount to the aggregate retail value of all prizes to be awarded, in favor of the licensee, conditioned upon his honesty in the performance of his duties. Terms of the bond shall provide that notice shall be given in writing to the licensing authority not less than thirty (30) days prior to its cancellation.

C. The raffle manager shall give a fidelity bond in accordance with the above requirements, except where the licensee has obtained a license from another unit of local government for the same raffle and a fidelity bond has been posted with that unit of local government in an amount equal to the aggregate retail value of all prizes to be awarded.

D. The Commissioner is authorized to waive this bond requirement or remit the application for review and recommendation before the Law & Government/Liquor Committee as to whether this bond requirement may be waived for raffles with a prize value not to exceed $20,000 by including a waiver provision in the license issued to an organization under this Ordinance, provided that a request for such license containing a waiver provision is approved by unanimous vote of the members of the licensed organization.

(Ord. O-201505-12-020, § XI, passed 5-5-2015)

§ 5.12.130 RECORDS.

A. Each licensee shall keep records of its gross receipts, expenses, and net proceeds for each single gathering or occasion at which winning chances are to be determined. All deductions from gross receipts for each single gathering or occasion shall be documented with receipts or other records indicating the amount, a description of the purchased item or service or other reason for the deduction, and the recipient. The distribution of net proceeds shall be itemized as to payee, purpose, amount and date of payment.

B. Gross receipts from the operation of raffle and poker run programs shall be segregated from other revenues of the licensee, including bingo gross receipts, if bingo games are also conducted by the same non-profit organization pursuant to license therefore issued by the Department of Revenue of the State of Illinois, and placed in a separate account.
