

DECENNIAL COMMITTEES ON LOCAL GOVERNMENT EFFICIENCY ACT

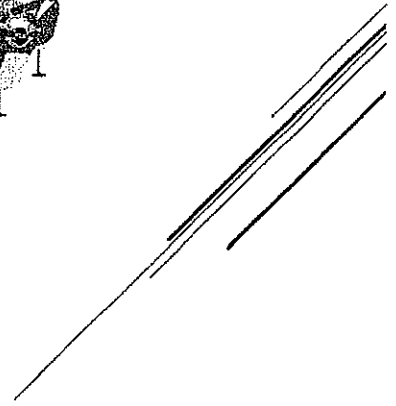

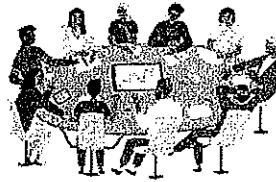

Joseph Miller III
Ottosen DiNolfo Hasenbalg & Castaldo, Ltd.
1804 N. Naper Blvd, Ste. 350
Naperville, Illinois 60563
(630) 682-0085
jmiller@ottosenlaw.com

▶ WHO?

- ▶ Committee chair: president or chief elected or appointed official of the governing board (or their designee)
- ▶ The elected or appointed members of the governing board
- ▶ At least 2 residents within the territory served by the governmental unit, appointed by the chair with the advice and consent of the board
- ▶ Any chief executive officer or other officer of the governmental unit
- ▶ Additional members appointed by the chair as the chair deems appropriate

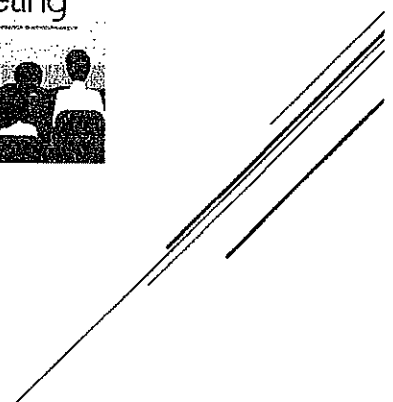

REQUIREMENTS

▶ COMMITTEE DUTIES

- ▶ Meet at least three (3) times
 - ▶ Can be during regular meeting as long as
 - ▶ Separate notice is given according to OMA
 - ▶ Committee meeting is listed as part of the agenda
 - ▶ At least a majority of committee members are present
 - ▶ Meetings must be public
 - ▶ Provide opportunity for any person to be heard for at least three (3) minutes
 - ▶ Can require speakers to register
- ▶ Meetings subject to OMA and FOIA

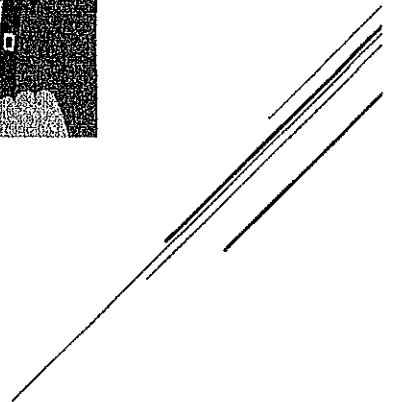

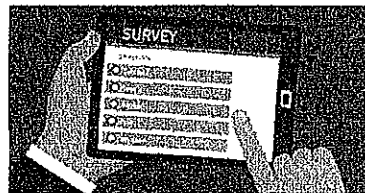

REQUIREMENTS

▶ COMMITTEE DUTIES

- ▶ Study the governmental unit's
 - ▶ Governing statutes
 - ▶ Ordinances
 - ▶ Rules
 - ▶ Procedures
 - ▶ Powers
 - ▶ Jurisdiction
 - ▶ Shared services
 - ▶ Intergovernmental agreements
 - ▶ Interrelationships with other governmental units and the State
- ▶ Collect data, research, and analysis as necessary to prepare the report
- ▶ Conduct survey after the meeting of residents who attended asking for input on matters discussed
 - ▶ Via email is OK

REQUIREMENTS

► REPORT

- ▶ Summary of committee's work and findings
- ▶ Include recommendations to increase accountability and efficiency
- ▶ Committee must provide report to county board and make available to the public
- ▶ Committee may use services of specialists in public administration, governmental management, other trained consultants, analysts, investigators, assistants if considers appropriate, community colleges and universities to help prepare report

REQUIREMENTS

